

Theaching staff - 2nd Module

Giovanni GORDIANI

Mr Giovanni Gordiani is an expert in EU environmental legislation, policy and programmes. He has experience as an associate teacher at the Scuola Superiore Sant'Anna and Pisa University, regarding European and international environmental customary law and conventions. Currently, he is a legal advisor and trainer on environmental legislation activity for the EU Directorate General for the Environment, EUROPE AID and also the Directorate General for EU Enlargement. He is also manager of EU funded projects in Greece and Italy, in the field of environment, eco-innovation, and cul-

John Baptist ONAMA

Mr John Baptist Onama was born in Lacor, Uganda. He has a rich background in the field of EU development co-operation policies, thanks to his direct participation in study missions and project fieldwork experiences in Kenya, Uganda, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Sweden, Ireland and Romania.

He has been often called to conduct lectures on EU Project Cycle management techniques both in Italy and abroad; he is currently a lecturer in this field at the Faculty of Political Science of the University of Padua.

Prof. J. B. Onama

Nicolò GASPARINI

Mr Nicolò Gasparini is project manager for the Tipik S.A., where is in charge of tenders monitoring and conception/drafting of project proposals for EU tenders in the field of communication and media development.

He graduated at the College of Europe in Bruges; then he worked as administration officer for the Italian Ministry of Defence, in charge of management of procurements. He was also a researcher for the Center for Strategies Studies (CeMiSS) in New York. Moreover has experience as project officer in Kosovo, Serbia and Montenegro, where he was worked on the implementation of a European project. He was information officer for different EU funded projects in South-Eastern Europe, from economic cooperation to ICT.

Gloria RODRIGUES

Ms Glória Rodrigues is a Portuguese Project Manager within the Policy Department of the European Wind Energy Association (EWEA) in Brussels. She is an expert in sustainable and renewable energy policies and funds. She is also external expert for projects in Latin America related with European affairs.

Previously she worked as Research Assistant within the European Department of the Institute for International and Strategic Studies (IEEI) in Lisbon. She has been Project Manager within the consultancy firm Euronet Consulting, dealing with European framework contracts in the field of cooperation and development. At the beginning of her career she had an experience at the European Parliament in Brussels.

Gabriella IGLOI

Ms Iglò is a public officer at the Permanent representation of the Republic of Hungary to the European Union. She deals with subjects like regional policy, cohesion funds, environment protection, transport, operational programme for the economic development and the reform of the public administration.

Previously she worked as Director General at the National Development Office (NDO) in Hungary and as Deputy Head of Department at the office of Prime Minister.

She is author of different articles about the structural funds and rural development policy of the EU.

Alessandra TAGLIAVINI

Ms Alessandra Tagliavini has been working as programme advisor and proposal writer with a number of Italian Organisations located in Bologna, Naples and Rome. She cooperated with the Emilia-Romagna Region and with the research organisation Amitié on EC-funded projects in the field of international co-operation, non formal-education, research and innovation and childcare. She is an expert in European project drafting and management. She is co-operating as editorial staff for the magazine AFRO.

Enrico RIBERI

Enrico Riberi works as a Financial Adviser at the EACEA, the Education Audiovisual & Culture Executive Agency of the European Commission. He developed an in-depth knowledge of the financial management of the EU grants working both in the Commission's education sector (Lifelong Learning Programme - EACEA) and in the external aid service (EuropeAid). Before joining the European Commission, he worked as a project manager for several EU-funded projects (e.g. Interreg) at the European Affairs office of the Italian National Association of Municipalities (ANCI) based in Brussels. He holds a university degree in Business Economics and he is currently under training to become chartered accountant in the UK (ACCA - Association of Chartered Accountant).

Sonia HERRERO

Ms Herrero has a background in Law and Human Rights acquired during her studies in Barcelona, Grenoble, Brussels, Geneva and the U.S.A. She is an expert in development, human rights, democracy promotion, good governance, international justice, refugees and asylum seekers, and gender issues. She worked at the European Commission, DG AIDCO as project manager. Afterwards, she has been an external evaluator for the Commission for projects managed by the DG AIDCO.

She worked as EU Affaires Manager for the International Center for Transitional Justice, in charge of lobbying activities and project management activities in the field of human rights, development, and conflict prevention. Previously she had been at the head of the Brussels Office of the International Rehabilitation Council for torture victims.

She conducted short-term missions to Bosnia-Herzegovina, Hungary, Latvia, Lithuania, Romania; Ukraine, Bangladesh, India, Pakistan; Nepal, Sri Lanka, Thailand, Egypt, Syria, Argentina and Mexico.